Abstracts of the Proceedings of the Urological Society of Australasia: 36th AGM, Brisbane, Australia, 1983, 85
Adenocarcinoma in a Schistosoma-infested defunctioned urinary bladder, total intestinal metaplasia with focal, 331
Allopurinol treatment, the composition of catheter encrustations, including the effects of, 250
Alum, use of, to control intractable vesical haemorrhage, 673 Amyloidosis of the renal pelvis, localised primary, 223 of the ureter, 438
Angiography, renal, in cases of renal carcinoma, study of the venous phase on, 149
Antisperm antibodies and male infertility, 531 autoantibody response, prevention of, in vasectomised Swiss white mice by infusion of heterologous antisperm serum, 418
Arterial injury, serious, during urological surgery, 434

Bilharzial ureters, surgical intervention in dilated, 276 uropathies and a scheme for primary medical care, 13
Biofeedback: a 5-year review, 220
Bladder and omentum in dogs, replacement of ureteric segments by intubated neo-ureterotomies (modified Davis technique) using autologous, 354 and urethral pressures, effect of thyroid releasing hormone on, 397
  "beehive" on the: an indication of colovesical disease, 35 cancer, cis-diamminedichloroplatinum (DDP) as initial treatment of invasive, 296 intravesical methotrexate in the treatment of superficial, 663 sensitivity of exfoliative cytology in, using the divided one-urine specimen examination, 48 treatment of invasive, by local resection and high dose methotrexate, 668 carcinoma, biological behaviour and DNA cytophotometry of urothelial, 289 distension, repeated, by the Cystomat in the treatment of detrusor instability, 285 function following spinal cord injury: a urodynamic analysis of the outcome, 172 gas gangrene of the, complicating cyclophosphamide cystitis, 100 inhibition by penile electrical stimulation, 413 mucosa, scanning electron microscopy of human, in acute and chronic urinary tract infection, 38 mucosal abnormality, urography and cystoscopy in, 180 neck obstruction in chronic prostatitis, urodynamic evaluation of, 713 neck suspension, Stamey endoscopic, for stress incontinence, 629 neoplasms, spontaneous resolution of multiple, 50 speed, the clinical significance of, 165 syndrome, fluphenazine/nortriptyline in the irritable. A double-blind placebo controlled study, 178 the smooth muscle of rat, in the early stages of streptozotocin-induced diabetes, 24 total intestinal metaplasia with focal adenocarcinoma in a Schistosoma-infested defunctioned urinary, 331 training in 65 patients, experience with, 482 transection, endoscopic, 625 treatment of detrusor instability of the urinary, by selective sacral blockade, 464 tumour(s), intravenous urography: important adjunct for diagnosis of, 502 pre-cystoscopic diagnosis of, by modified intravenous urography, 381 promotion of, by endoscopic procedures in an animal model, 658 value of excretory cystography in the diagnosis of, 499
